All People Are God's Creation

Walking down the street, eight-year-old Rosa felt very lonely. She had just moved into a new house and had not made any friends yet. Rosa was sad when she remembered her friends at her other house.

Rosa's family had just moved to the United States from Mexico. Her mama told her that soon she would have new friends and feel happy again. Rosa was not very sure it would be true. She did not speak very much English, so it would be hard for her to talk with the boys and girls in her new school and neighborhood.

Rosa's papa spoke English well and wanted to teach Rosa. But papa was very busy with his new job.

Rosa did have one special friend to whom she could always talk. He understood every language. His name is Jesucristo. Rosa had trusted in Jesus as her Savior when she was seven years old. Now, she thought about how happy she was to be a Christian. She was really never alone.

Mama reminded Rosa to ask Jesucristo to help her. Mama opened the big family Biblia and read (Ephesians 4:32), "And be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted [feeling kind], forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you."
