INSTRUCTIONS FOR BIBLE

The LIFEPAAC curriculum from grades two through twelve is structured so that the daily instructional material is written directly into the LIFEPAACs. The student is encouraged to read and follow this instructional material in order to develop independent study habits. The teacher should introduce the LIFEPAAC to the student, set a required completion schedule, complete teacher checks, be available for questions regarding both content and procedures, administer and grade tests, and develop additional learning activities as desired. Teachers working with several students may schedule their time so that students are assigned to a quiet work activity when it is necessary to spend instructional time with one particular student.

The Teacher Notes section of the Teacher's Guide lists the required or suggested materials for the LIFEPAACs and provides additional learning activities for the students. The materials section refers only to LIFEPAAC materials and does not include materials which may be needed for the additional activities. Additional learning activities provide a change from the daily school routine, encourage the student's interest in learning and may be used as a reward for good study habits.

Unit 1: The Faithfulness of God

TEACHER NOTES

MATERIALS NEEDED FOR LIFEPAK

Required

(None)

Suggested

- King James Version of the Bible and other versions, if available and permitted
  - Dictionary of theology or books on New Testament theology
  - Smith, Hannah Whitall. The God of All Comfort. Chicago: Moody Press, 1956.
- *Reference materials can be in printed, online, or digital formats.*

EXTENDED WRITING ASSIGNMENT

Activity 2.28. Have students select an area of their lives in which God has shown his faithfulness and write a paragraph telling about a specific incident. Check paragraph for spelling, punctuation, and grammar. These papers may be shared with the class.

ADDITIONAL LEARNING ACTIVITIES

Section 1: The Affirmation of God’s Faithfulness

1. If we are not faithful to God in the routine experiences of life, can we expect his faithfulness to us in times of special testing?
2. Does the fact that Christians suffer from sickness, accidents, and so forth take away from God’s faithfulness to his children?
3. People often refer to the “patience of Job.” Do you agree with this comparison? How do you think Job kept so much patience through all of his sufferings?
4. Using a dictionary or thesaurus, write as many synonyms as you can find for the word faithfulness.
5. Using a dictionary or thesaurus, write as many antonyms as you can find for the word faithfulness.
6. Look up the word shepherd in an encyclopedia (printed or online, standard or Biblical). Write a two-paragraph comparison on how the shepherd cares for his sheep and how the Good Shepherd cares for his children.
7. Look in a Bible concordance and count the number of verses that refer to the faithfulness of God. Select one you especially like and memorize it.

Section 2: The Nature of God's Faithfulness

1. Discuss the idea of the changing world we live in, the unreliability of people, and then stress the fact that God never changes. He is always there, ready to listen, and will never betray our confidence.
2. Discuss the God-like attributes which man possesses and compare the attributes shared by man and God. (Examples: Man can be "knowing" but God is all-knowing. Man can love, but God's love sent his only Son to die on a cross.)
3. See who can make the most words out of the word faithfulness. Plurals and proper nouns do not count.
4. Make a mural of two or three Biblical scenes depicting the faithfulness of God to his people.
5. From Activity 2.20, select one of the ten verses as your favorite. Write it on an index card and put it where you will see it often during the week. Memorize it, and repeat it to yourself during the day when you believe Satan is trying to tempt you.
6. Hebrews 6:13 through 18 says, "And so, after he (Abraham) had patiently endured, he obtained the promise." Write 100 words on the need for patience in a Christian's life.
7. We have read that men make gods of money, power, or pleasure and that athletic ability, social popularity, and academic achievement can also become gods. Have you put any of these things above God in your life? Is he first in your heart today?

Section 3: The Manifestations of God's Faithfulness

1. Discuss some of the ways God showed his faithfulness to Noah, Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and Joseph; to the prophets Daniel and Elijah; through Christ to the disciples; to the early church; to church leaders through the centuries; and to us today—individually and the church as a whole.
2. Discuss the ways in which man has failed God and is failing him today.
3. What is the difference between a conditional promise and an unconditional promise?
4. Do we ever make a conditional promise to God? Should we?
5. Prepare a newspaper (printed or digital) that gives examples of God's faithfulness. (Activity 1 may be discussed first as a background.) The newspaper could include an editorial page, letters to the editor (written by people who have experienced God's faithfulness—Daniel, etc.), sports page (with witnesses from Christian athletes—Tim Tebow, A. J. Green, Tony Dungy, etc.), and even a society section.
6. Look up the duties of a mediator (as in labor unions, etc.) in a dictionary or encyclopedia (printed or digital). Compare this definition to Christ being a mediator between God and man.
7. Do you really believe Romans 8:28? Can you remember a time in your life when it seemed things were going badly, only to find later that God had been working for your benefit? Write about this experience and share it with the class. (Are you going through something right now that you cannot see its purpose? Put your faith to work and apply Romans 8:28 to this problem.)
8. What does the word sacrifice mean to you? Have you ever sacrificed anything you wanted very much in order that someone else could have what they wanted or needed? Did you sacrifice out of duty or love? Could your sacrifice ever be so deep that you would give your life for another?

Section 4: The Implications of God's Faithfulness

1. How do we know God will not fail? (Through faith we believe the Bible, and we know he never has failed us in the past.)
2. Discuss ways that we can show our faithfulness to God. (through church attendance, tithing, prayer, Bible reading, and witnessing)
3. How can people tell if we are not faithful to God? (It will eventually show itself in our behavior.)
4. Do you believe a person saved late in life will receive the same reward in heaven as someone who has worked for the Lord many years?
5. Have the students interview various Christians and list examples of God's faithfulness to them. Try to get a good cross-section: new Christians, mature Christians, senior citizens, teenagers, ministers, laymen, and so forth. Some of these people will tell of God's faithfulness in spiritual matters, others in financial or physical affairs. Share these interviews with the class.
6. Make a list of what stewardship involves. Is it just our money?
7. Talk to someone who became a Christian later in life. What reasons did he give for waiting so long? Has he experienced any regret for the wasted years? Without using his name, share his experience with an unsaved friend you are praying for.
8. Make a list of your talents; then ask yourself if you are presently allowing God to use all your talents and time. Can he depend on you? Write a prayer of commitment and put it where you will see it every morning. Remember, you not only need God, he needs you. You are his only hands.
